DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.
2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over O'Neil et al. (US 5,987,440).
3. As per independent Claims 1 and 14, O'Neil discloses a method (apparatus) for selling personal information (Abstract, C6 L53-64, C61 L43-60, C64 L61-67), comprising: receiving (receive module) personal information of an owner of the personal information (Abstract, C61 L50-54, C65 L36-39); specifying a policy (policy module) related to sale of the personal information (Abstract, C3 L49-63, C6 L53-64, C61 L61-67, C62 L61-67, C63 L1-15, C65 L39-40); validating (validate module) the personal information (Abstract, C7 L53-67, C8 L1-13, C63 L16-20, C67 L13-14, C70 L49-50); receiving a request for the personal information from a requestor; and selectively providing (provide module) the validated personal information in response to a request and based upon the policy (Abstract, C6 L53-64, C61 L55-60).
4. O'Neil does not specifically disclose enabling the requestor to decline receipt of the personal information based upon a cost of the personal information.

5. However, O'Neil does teach that the buyer (requestor) has the right to collectively bargain collective and individual personal information processing privileges in exchange for value (C67 L62-67, C68 L1-5).
6. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have included enabling the requestor to decline receipt of the personal information based upon a cost of the personal information in the system disclosed by O'Neil, for the advantage of providing a method for selling personal information, which gives the buyer bargaining power to decide whether to purchase the personal information or not based on the seller's price.
7. As per Claims 2, 9, and 15, O'Neil discloses wherein the specifying the policy step includes specifying attributes required of a requestor in order to receive the personal information (Abstract, C10 L11-16, C24 L8-45, C65 L50-55, C67 L7-10).
8. As per Claims 3, 10, and 16, O'Neil discloses wherein the specifying the policy step includes specifying exclusions related to the sale of the personal information (Abstract, C24 L8-45, C67 L7-10).
9. As per Claims 4 and 17, O'Neil discloses specifying cost of the personal information, and wherein the providing step further includes selectively providing the validated personal information based upon the cost (Abstract, C6 L53-64, C21 L37-62, C24 L8-45, C61 L55-60).
10. As per Claims 5 and 18, O'Neil discloses wherein the providing step includes: assessing the cost to a requestor submitting the request; and crediting a least a portion of the cost to the owner (Abstract, C6 L53-64, C21 L37-62, C24 L8-45, C62 L61-67).

11. As per Claims 6 and 19, O'Neil discloses wherein the receiving step includes receiving information related to credit card purchases, shopping habits, web browsing habits, assets, or finances of the owner (Abstract, C6 L53-64, C10 L23-36).
12. As per Claims 7 and 20, O'Neil discloses wherein the receiving step includes recording an indication of electronic purchases by the owner (C6 L53-64, C10 L23-36, C21 L59-62, C63 L34-38).
13. As per independent Claim 8, O'Neil discloses a method for selling personal information (Abstract, C6 L53-64, C21 L37-62), comprising: receiving from a requestor a request for personal information of a particular owner of the personal information (Abstract, C7 L33-37, C24 L8-45); specifying a policy related to sale of the personal information; validating the personal information through a trusted third party (Abstract, C63 L16-20, C67 L13-14, C70 L49-50); determining if the requestor is permitted to receive the requested personal information based upon the policy; enabling the requestor to decline receipt of the personal information based upon a cost of the personal information (C67 L62-67, C68 L1-5); and providing the requested personal information to the requestor if the requestor is permitted to receive the personal information (Abstract, C6 L53-64, C61 L55-60) and has not declined receipt of the personal information based upon the cost (C67 L62-67, C68 L1-5).
14. As per Claim 11, O'Neil discloses providing payment to the owner for the sale of the personal information (Abstract, C6 L53-64, C10 L11-16, C21 L37-62, C62 L61-67, C66 L29-33).
15. As per Claim 12, O'Neil discloses wherein the providing step includes crediting an account associated with owner (Abstract, C6 L53-64, C21 L37-62, C62 L61-67).

16. As per Claim 13, O'Neil discloses receiving a request for a particular owner having personal information for sale (Abstract, C7 L33-37, C24 L8-45).

Response to Arguments

17. Applicant's arguments with respect to Claims 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

18. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).
Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

19. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
